ATTENTION KIDS: DON'T BE A DROPOUT — STAY IN SCHOOL AND DRIVE THE TEACHERS CRAZY!

I really liked No. 24, except the part about the Marithin Man. Now I'd like to see you write something dumb about that!

Walter Randle
Rahnert Park, Cal.

Dear Walter,
Nonny nonny nonny nonnyna!

I used to read Mad, then I bought Crazy. Boy, I sure went crazy reading it! I won't buy anything else but Crazy now. And if you print this I will really buy them. Thank you for writing such a terrific book!

James Bays
Grand Prairie, Texas

Dear James,
Thank you for writing such a terrific letter!

Since you did a story on Kink Konk why don't you do one on Godzilla?

Richy Tiff
Jensen Beach, Fla.

Dear Richy,
You must want us to go ape altogether!

Your mag. is the best, but too short. It's better than Mad, Cracked, and Sick, but please make it longer.

Dago Hornedo
Laredo, Texas

Dear Dago,
Sorry, but our printer feels that 11 inches is long enough!

You have got to be Mad or Cracked to print Crazy.

Tom Tier
Buffalo, N.Y.

Dear Tom,
Yes, and a little Sick too!

I went to the store the other day looking for some Mad books. They were all sold out so I got Crazy instead. Now I'm a loyal reader. To get right to the point, I would like to know if you would do a movie satire on 'Silver Streak'?

Doug Ally
Houston, Texas

Dear Doug,
We will, as soon as we can figure out a "loco" motive!

In issue No. 28 I didn't like the way you answered any of the letters. But, I did like the little guy who carries the signs!

Debbie Cummings
Smithville, Mo.

Dear Debbie,
What makes you think he isn't the one who answered the letters?

...If you don't print this letter I will jump off the skylight at school!

Michael Brodeur
Montreal, Canada

Dear Michael,
Here's your letter-we wouldn't want you to drop out!

I think CRAZY is a great magazine. But what got me upset was that in August #28, a person by the name of Bruce Roepe said Mad was better. Either you're crazy, Bruce, or mad about something!

Edith Arnst
Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Dear Edith,
Or just a little cracked!

I used to love "Mad" and hate "Cracked", but now I have abandoned them and I love "Crazy". In the first issue I ever read, No. 29, there was "The Crazy Book Of Things You Never Could Figure Out As A Kid". Now I am forever quoting something stupid!

Cindy Walker
Edmonton, Alberta

Dear Cindy,
That's how our editor got started!

I really like your covers, especially the one about Pres. Carter in the place of George Washington and Donny & Marie in place of American Gothic. Could you do in the future Bob Newhart in place of Blue Boy, Phyllis instead of the Mona Lisa and Mary Tyler Moore instead of Whistler's mother?

R.B.
Alexandria, Ontario

Dear R.B.,
Love to know what your full name is instead of those initials!

This is the first time I read CRAZY (No. 25) and I want to tell you I enjoyed it. I really liked the one about "Happiness For Today's Modern Kids". Keep up the good work!

Sabrina Manzzaro
Trinidad, W.I.

Dear Sabrina,
If we do, it will be more happiness for today's modern kids!

Your writers must be very freaky and weird when it comes to writing stories and other dumb things. I've always wanted to be as dumb as your writers and smart in their ways. You know what I mean?

B.J.W.
Culpeper, Va.

Dear B.J.W.,
We would if we were smart!

I liked your Issue #29. It was the first CRAZY I ever read. I was sick for a whole week...

Leonore Person
New York, N.Y.

Dear Leonore,
What happens when you read Sick—do you go Crazy for a week?

EXCLUSIVE!
Anita Bryant has no place to go to have her hair done!

In Issue #27 you made a mistake. In the Contents Picture 13, it says "Using Wrong Products". It should say "T.V. Scenes We'd Like To See".

Mike Reed
Birmingham, Ala.

Dear Mike,
That's what we'd like to see on T.V.—wrong products!

I like all kinds of magazines but I think CRAZY and Mad are the best. But when I read Issue #22 I flipped. I thought CRAZY was better than Mad!

Anthony Cangialori
Bayonne, N.J.

Dear Anthony,
So you're the one!

I liked Darny & Merrie in #28 so much I wanted to buy three editions but I had bought the last one. And if you don't print this letter I'll make a CRAZY magazine fire!

Robert Matchett
Ishpening, Mich.

Dear Robert,
Shhh!...that's next season!

I really like reading "Crazy News Of The Month" everytime I buy CRAZY. I don't see how you can pack million-dollar humor in a 50-cent magazine!

Carl Cronan
Pleasant Grove, Ala.

Dear Carl,
It's difficult—sometimes it's so chock-full, we have to sit on the covers to close the magazine!

I noticed a blooper in Issue #28. It was in the "Marithin Man" page 48. In one place on the page you had the marithin man's and Shmell's voices switched!

Sandy Lindgren
Hibbing, Minn.

Dear Sandy,
We tried it the right way and it wasn't as funny!

I am only 8-years-old but I'm probably your number one fan!

Richard Bullington
Fort Smith, Arkansas

Dear Richard,
Sounds possible. Our No. 8 fan is a 2-year-old!

I think you should do a satire on "Voyage To The Bottom Of The Sea", "The Omen" and "The Brady Bunch". If you don't print this letter I'll take issue #10 through #26 and burn it along with my other garbage and junk!

Johnny Sead
New York, n.y.

Dear Johnny,
For the sake of pollution, here's your letter!

What I want to tell you is that I dig your mag and sleep right next to the newstand not to miss an issue. In this connection I would like to tell off Mr. Alain Houlliere from France who wrote to you (issue No. 27) to claim French fun mags were much better and that "You'll never get perfection we know in France without writing in French". My standpoint is that this dummy is either a die-hard dingo or an out-of-the-way nut!

Patrick Alan Gaglio
Nice, France

Dear Patrick,
Now let's see what Mr. Houlliere thinks about your letter. He'll probably say you're in-Seine!

Why don't you try a satire on if doctors made television commercials? That might be funny...

J. Hilley
Mableton, Ga.

Dear J.,
Sorry, we don't do "sick" humor!

TAKE A LETTER TO CRAZY
Marvel Management Group
575 Madison Avenue
New York, N.Y. 10022

MOVIE SATIRE:

Here is CRAZY'S version of the biggest picture of the year. No, it's not a life-size photo of Wilt Chamberlain.

It's a soggy, underwater spectacle that's really packing them in. In fact, in drive-in theatres they're blowing their horns at the end to signify approval. Which is a sneaky way for us to call it...

THE BEEP

Writer: Fred Wolfe Artist: Murad Gumen

I know you're new at deep-sea diving, honey, but next time I ask for an under-water light—don't hand me a candle!

Some deep-sea diver! The only thing we've come up with so far is a wet mackerel and 19 yards of seaweed!

Honey, I think you've got water-on-the-brain! Relax, will you—we'll find that buried Spanish treasure if it takes all month!

But no Spanish ships have been through these Bermuda waters in over 400 years!

So it'll take another month! What's the hurry—we're here for the summer!

LAME ENIG IS A FINE HAZARD

What happened?

Some weird, vicious creature just grabbed me!

Wow! I know guys are on the make everywhere—but this is ridiculous!

So what do you expect—wearing a see-through T-shirt like that?

Well, at least it shows my heart's in the right place!

HAVE YOU SEEN GEPETTO?

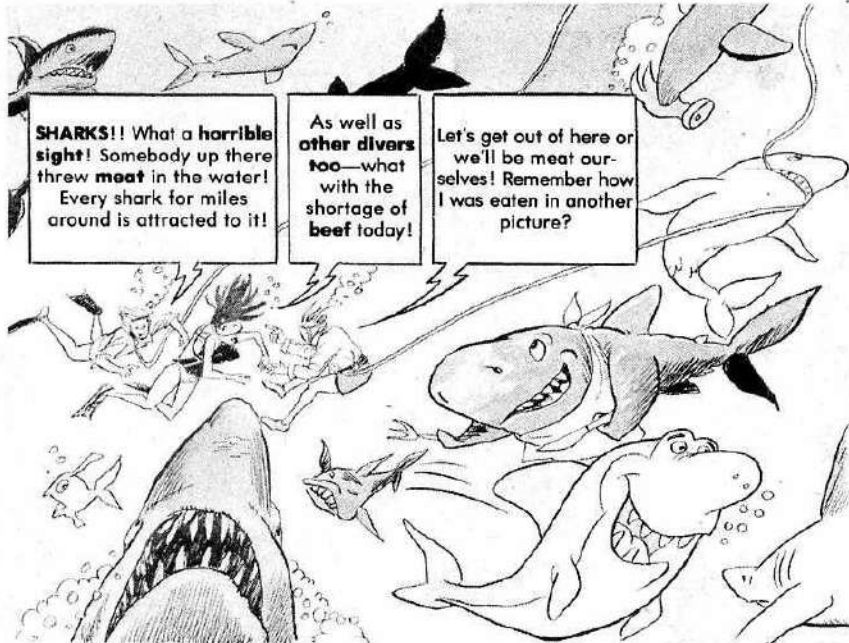

Great idea—giving me a vacuum to suck up these bottles! While picking them up, I'm dusting them off too!

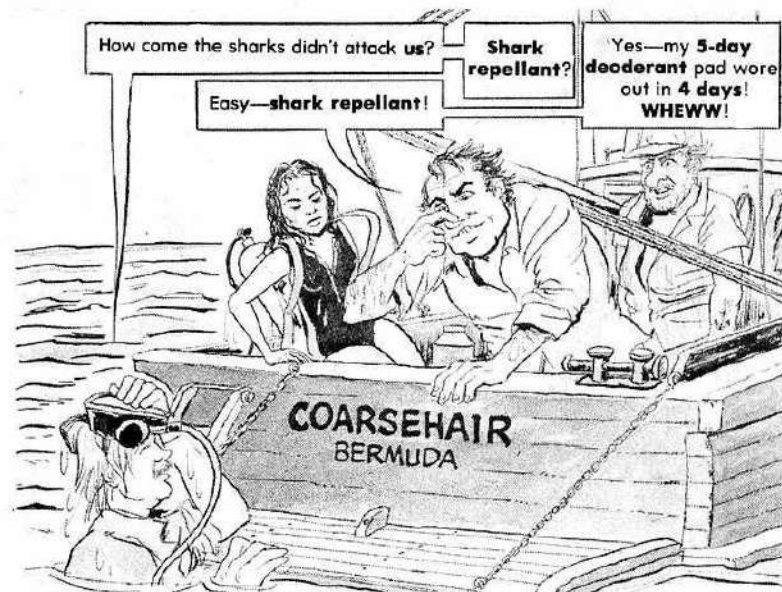

Oh, oh—what's that thrashing sound up there?

SHARKS!! What a horrible sight! Somebody up there threw meat in the water! Every shark for miles around is attracted to it!

As well as other divers too—what with the shortage of beef today!

Let's get out of here or we'll be meat ourselves! Remember how I was eaten in another picture?

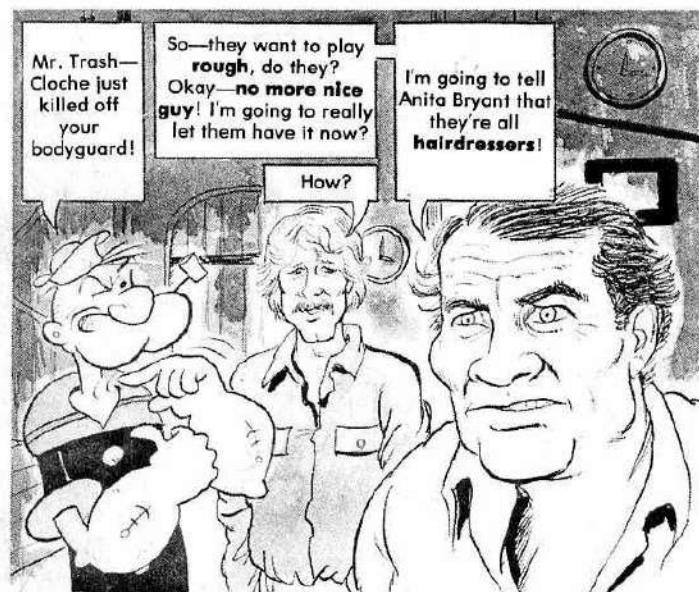

How come the sharks didn't attack us?

Shark repellent?

Yes—my 5-day deodorant pad wore out in 4 days! WHEWW!

Easy—shark repellent!

Mr. Trash—Cloche just killed off your bodyguard!

So—they want to play rough, do they? Okay—no more nice guy! I'm going to really let them have it now?

I'm going to tell Anita Bryant that they're all hairdressers!

How?

On second thought, I've decided to blow up the wrecked ship!

But it contains munitions loaded with explosive gas! It could be disastrous!

The gas will have a carbonating effect on the water! And, if I've calculated right, it will turn the entire lagoon into seltzer!

We'll make a fortune selling two-cent plains to the tourists!

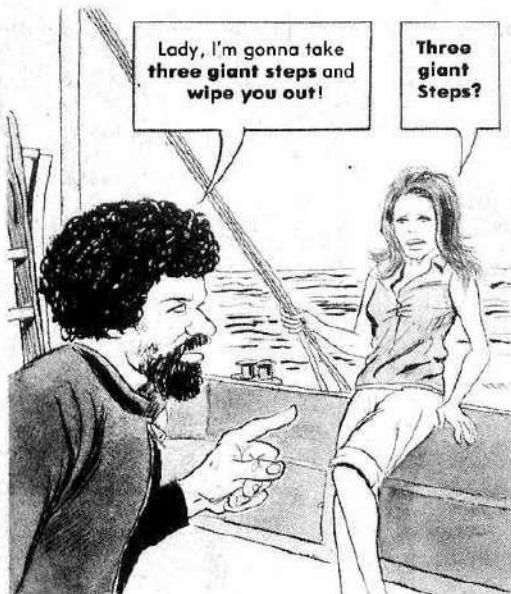

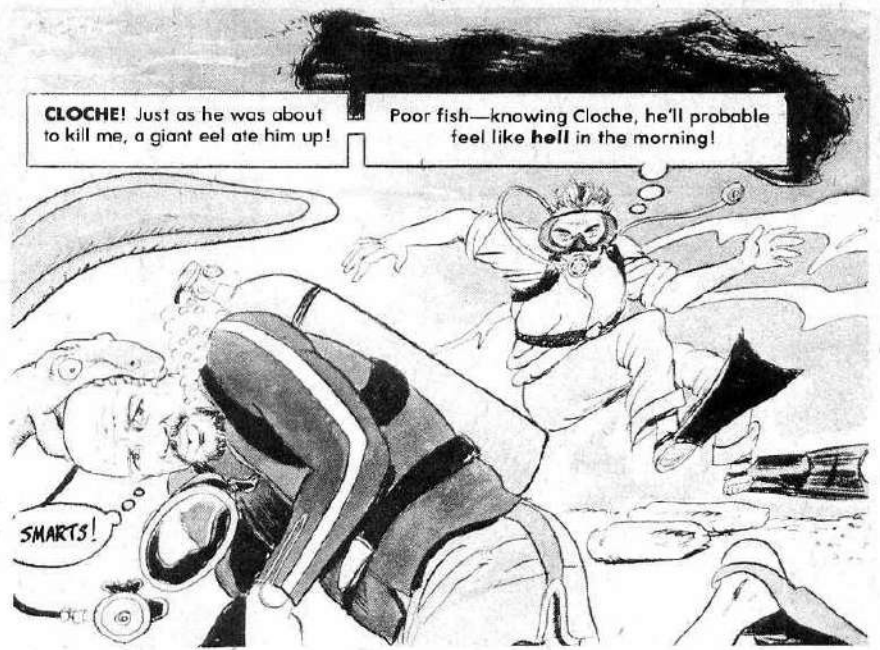

What was that?

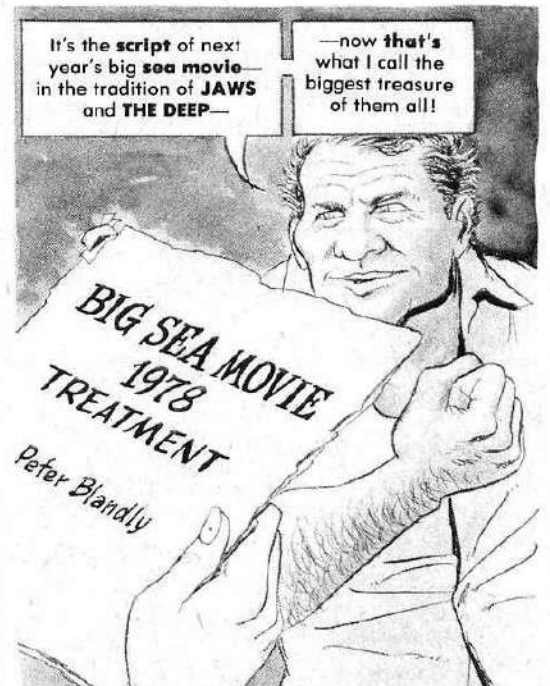

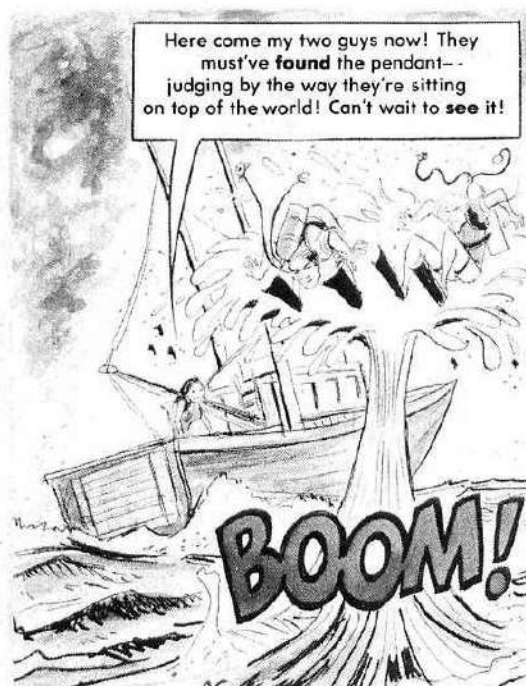

Coffin! He's the one who squealed on us—now he's got it in the end!

Remind me to visit him at the cemetery in Bermuda—and in Miami—and in the Thousand Islands—etcetera!

IN THE NEWS

Salt Lake City, Utah: Mrs. Betty Gloggens, a Mormon housewife, gave birth to triplets this month—all girls. She named them Faith, Hope and Welfare (she's already had it with charity!) This makes it 19 children in the Gloggens' household—all girls. When asked what she would do now that she has three more girls at home, Mrs. Gloggens replied: "I dunno—keep trying for a boy, I guess!"

Philadelphia, Pa.: Local residents Max Garber, 96, and Sally Quimper, 93, were married this month—the groom claiming he "had" to after getting her in "trouble". The happy couple spent their two-week honeymoon getting in and out of the car.

Chicago, Ill.: At one sitting, Arnold Zapp of nearby Cicero, ate 21 lobsters, 16 fried clams, 9 crab legs, 6 flounders, 3 red snappers, 2 salmon steaks and 6 striped bass. Afterwards he said he felt fine, but his stomach now goes in and out with the tide!

Detroit, Mich.: The star Tigers' outfielder, Tony "No Nose" Futterman signed his contract this month. Tony has been a hold-out. He hasn't played since 1946. In fact, he hasn't been in one game in over 30 years. Only last month he was so fed up he remarked "I think I'll get out of this business!"

ROY ROGERS IS TRIGGER-HAPPY!

Plains, Georgia: Billy Carter, the President's brother, just signed to star in a new movie "Ma And Pa Kettle Get A Hotfoot". Billy leaves for Hollywood as soon as he can pack a six-pack. Asked if he thought he could act, Billy replied, "I'm a great actor! Who do you think taught Jimmy how to act?"

Rome, Italy: A book has just been released here about Michelangelo, which explains exactly why it took him seven years to paint one ceiling. Seems it was a civil-service job. It further states that Michelangelo, although he loved doing windows, refused to do woodwork. They had to have a girl come in twice a week to clean up!

Washington, D.C.: President Jimmy Carter suffered a serious accident recently when he got a bad bump on the head and two knocked-out teeth, resulting from a punch thrown by his daughter, Amy. She said she was fed up with peanut butter sandwiches, peanut soup, peanut meat loaf and peanut milk every day. As Amy put it when she zapped her father: "Nuts to you, Man!"

Cleveland, Ohio: The late Mrs. Martha Wetback, a Shaker Heights housewife, left one and a half million dollars to her pet dog, "Roland" (should he survive her and he did!) Mrs. Wetback attained her great wealth by saving tin foil, shoe laces, stale bread and occasionally holding up banks. Roland barked, "I'm going to buy me 3 pet cats and a split-level dog house!"

BROAD JUMP RECORD

Hank Horney
Jumped more girls
than any other athlete in our school's history.

You must hold some type of local High School sports record.

You must have a team picture.
However, you don't have to be a member of the team.
You don't even have to know anyone on the team.

You must have one autographed baseball (you can sign it yourself)

You must have a bronzed
hockey puck, baseball mitt, basketball knee-pad or football helmet (they don't have to be yours)

You must have one acquaintance who is a professional athlete.

1ST. PLACE

You must have one medal
(any kind)

FUNDS SORTA GROWS ON YOU

3. YOU MUST BE ABLE TO PERFORM CERTAIN PHYSICAL FEATS...

LOWER THE AGE OF PUBERTY

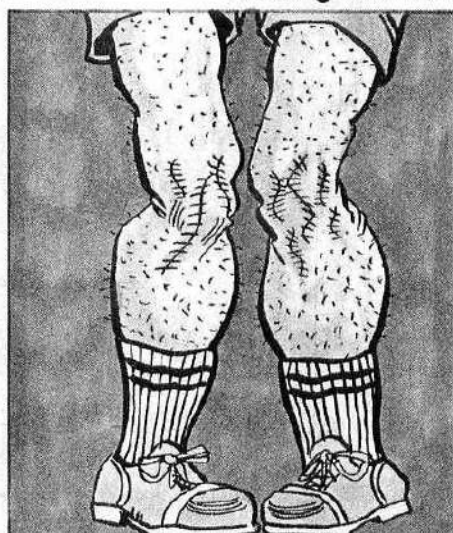

You must be able to do one push up, one chin up, one sit up, etc. You only have to be able to do one of each exercise because you only demonstrate each exercise one time.

You must be able to squash a person's palm when shaking hands. You must have a super strong grip. Only your right hand has to be strong. The rest of your body can be weak.

You must be able to perspire profusely. Coaches and gym teachers are expected to look sweaty.

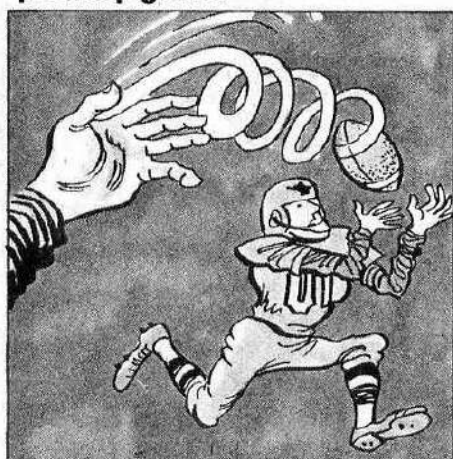

You must have scars on your knees and a phony storey about how you got hurt in a championship game.

You must be able to palm a basketball or be able to hold 5 baseballs in one hand.

You must be able to draw X's and O's on blackboards. You don't have to know any other letters.

You must be able to throw a perfect spiral, a full court pass, or a curve ball.

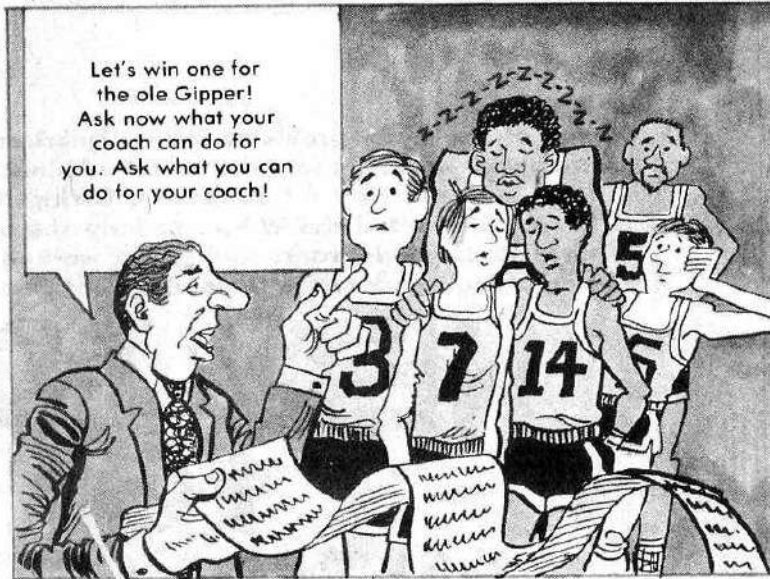

Last, but by no means least... You must be able to blow a whistle. This is your most important job.

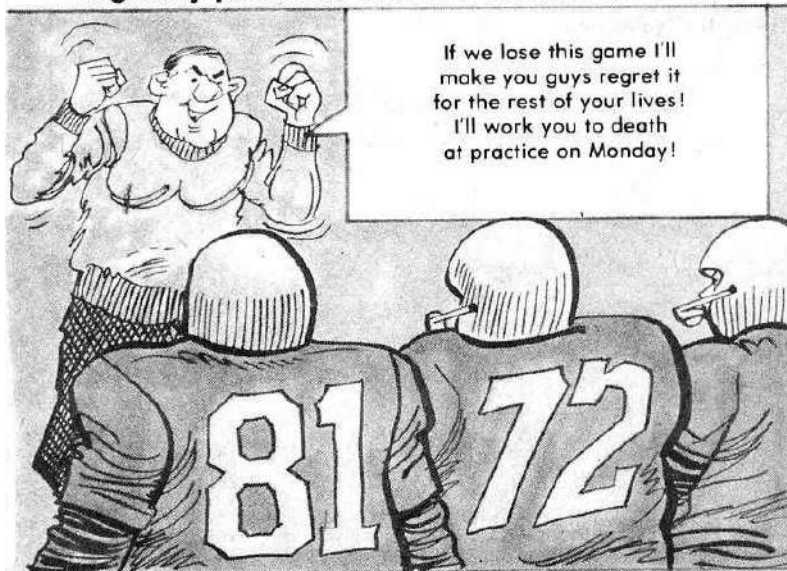

4. YOU MUST KNOW HOW TO DO CERTAIN MENTAL THINGS TOO. . .

Some students are reluctant to participate in physical activities. A coach must calmly and logically persuade them to become involved.

A coach must be able to deliver impromptu pep-talks at a moment's notice.

A coach must be an amateur phycologist, subtly making his team realize how important winning is.

Above all, a coach must set a good example for his players to follow.

Although winning is important, a coach must demonstrate how to lose gracefully.

A coach must live by the same rules that he sets down for his players.

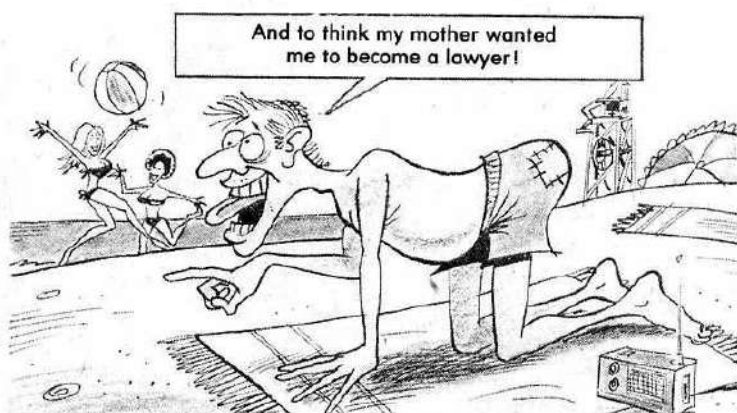

One of the major problems facing Americans today is Unemployment. Millions of people are out of work. We feel the Carter administration should come up with a plan to get these folks back on their coffee-breaks. During the Great Depression of the 1930's, President Roosevelt created the W.P.A. to help the unemployed get back on their feet. Today the work force needs work. And so we worked up this workable article which we think will work. If not, back to the Unemployment Line for the writer who though up...

NEW JOB IDEAS FOR THE UNEMPLOYED

Writer: Joe Kiernan

Artist: Dave Manak

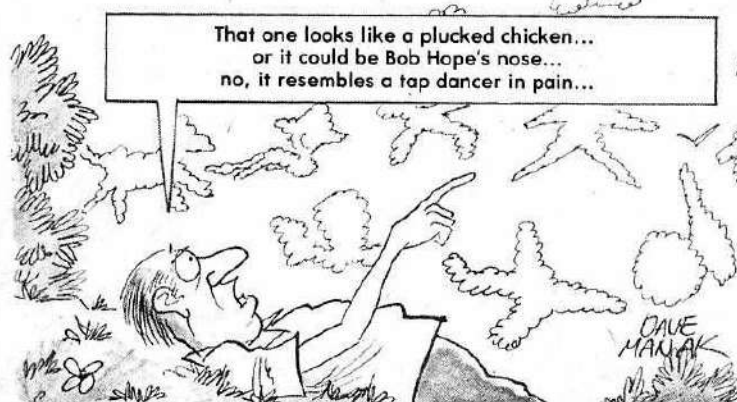

BEACH COMPUTER

Salary: $8,000 per year. An extra allowance of 6 bucks a week is given to buy eyedrops for overworked eyeballs. Education: None--you must have to be alive and have a will to put in long hours. Duties: To sit on the beach and count all the girls wearing bikinis. A bonus is given for finding girls who are topless.

GRASS GAZER

Pay is 3 bucks an hour and all the grass you can eat. Education required for this position: 7 weeks in any jungle, swamp or golf course in this country. The work takes place outdoors and consists of laying on the ground and keeping track of how the grass is growing. Also noting how the color changes in the sunlight. Next year, there will be a new job in this field: looking at astro-turf.

CLOUD LOOKER

92,000 dollars a year--if you know anyone who works for any of the following, Walter Cronkite, Secretary of State Cyrus Vance or Stan Lee. Education requirements: anything you got is O.K. For 2 hours a day you lay on your back and look at the passing clouds to see what they look like to you. Whether it be ducks, faces, boats, the state of Utah, etc.

TRAFFIC CONTROLLER FOR ANTS

5,987 dollars a year. 35 bucks allowance to buy a magnifying glass. Duties of the job: Keep ants in line when they cross streets, beaches and people sleeping on picnic blankets. Education needed: 3 hours in any back yard.

TIN GOD WE TRUST!

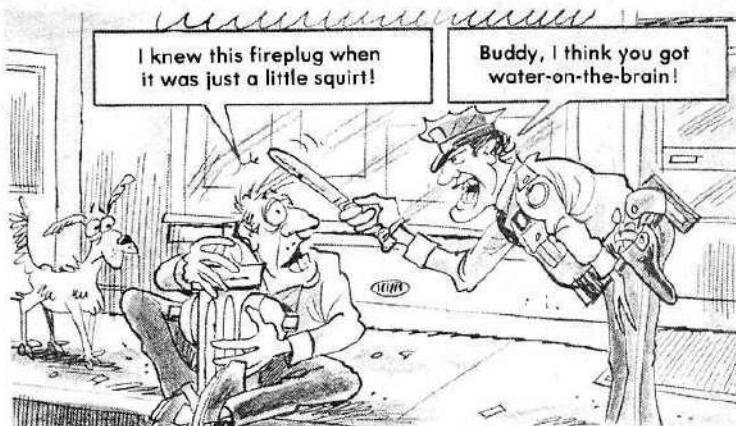

TV COMMERCIAL COUNTER

Pay is $10,000 a year ($12,000 if you own a TV set). Education: at least 3 years of viewing "Welcome Back, Kotter." Purpose of work: To find out how many commercials the network can ram down the throats of the American public in a 24-hour period.

PARK BENCH TESTER

Pay is 100 dollars a week or 20 bucks a day. Some people only work one day because they get mugged in the park. Educational requirements: Must be able to write name, count up to 10 and read Wet Paint signs. Work consists of testing park benches to see if they are sturdy and termite-free.

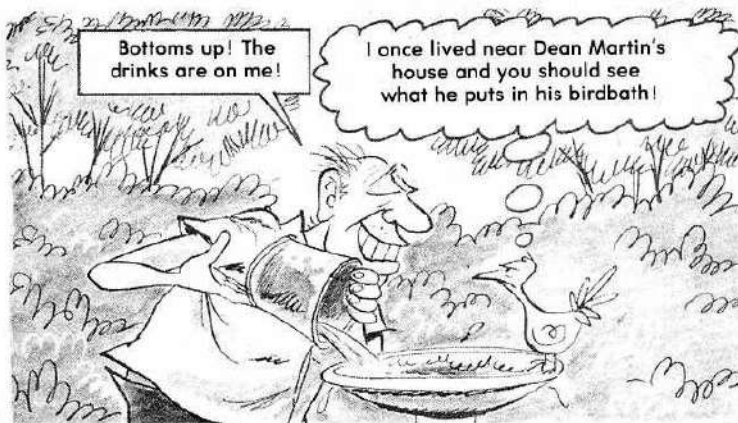

FIRE PLUG FEELER

Pay is 9,000 yearly (9,500 dollars if you don't have hang-nails). Education: Must be able to tie own shoes and wave good bye. Also must have talent to get along with dogs. Reason for job: To see that the fireplugs do not leak. Also to see that no plugs are stolen.

TREE SITTER

Pay is 21,000 dollars a year (24,000 dollars if you can recite the poem "Trees" without laughing). Education needed: One week in Kindergarten or four years at Yale. The job is to go talk to lonely trees for at least an hour. Many trees in this land of ours are without friends. Be a pal to a poplar or a friend to a fern.

BIRDBATH FILLER

Pay is 245,000 dollars a year. Education: 4 years of college, 6 years of Medical School and 8 weeks of auto repair. If you have none of the above, you may get the job if you can prove you voted for Jimmy Carter or have bought gas at brother Billy's Service Station. Job is to walk around in your town every morning and put water in the birdbaths. If you cannot find any birdbaths, you take a robin to lunch.

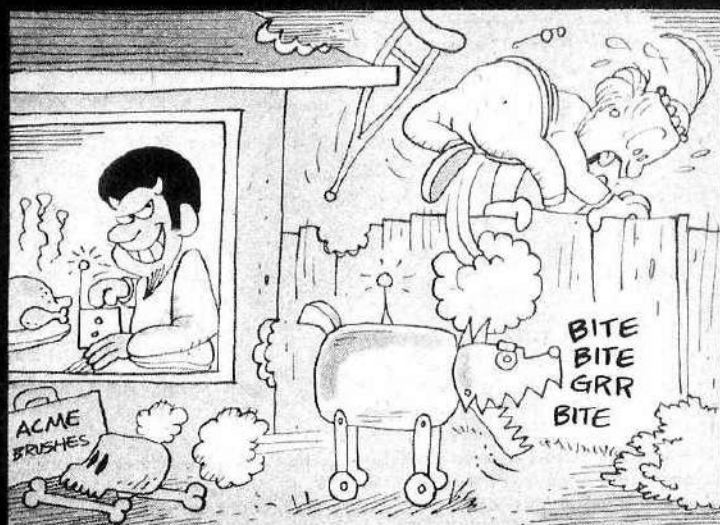

HUMOR MAGAZINE READER

Pay is 76 cents a week (98 cents if you don't wear glasses). Education needed: If you have walked past any school in the last 12 months you will do. Work consists of reading all comic books, humor magazines and stuff like that. While you're reading, if you find anything that strikes you funny, you write it down and send it to the United Nations in care of Captain Kangaroo.

In the public's interest, we present this article as a hint to would-be inventors who want to create machines that will benefit all mankind. Because these are definitely...

INVENTIONS

A robot watch dog that chases uninvited guests away from your house at dinner time.

A telephone that doesn't ring when it happens to be a wrong number or a crank call.

A multi-lingual margarine that says "Butter" in ten languages in case purchaser doesn't understand English.

Postage stamps that have pre-moistened glue on them so you don't get your tongue all sticky.

A ball point pen that writes only correct answers on tests and examination papers.

An automatic coffee maker that brews coffee without having to resort to expensive coffee beans.

WE SORELY NEED

Writer: Michael Pellowski

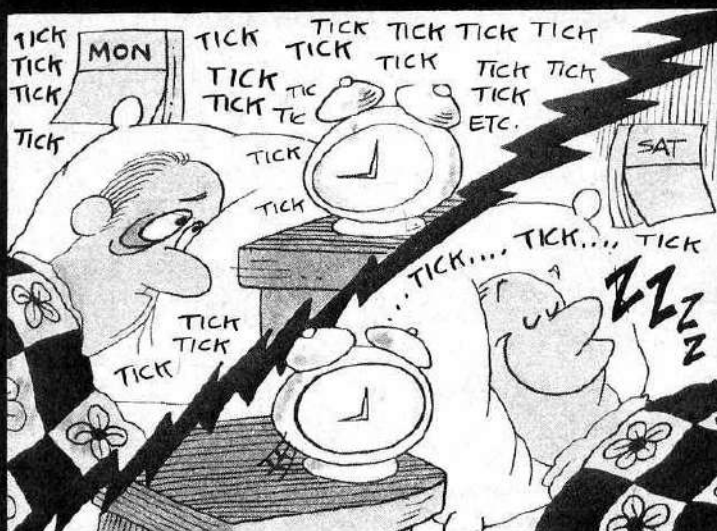

Artist: Ray Billingsley

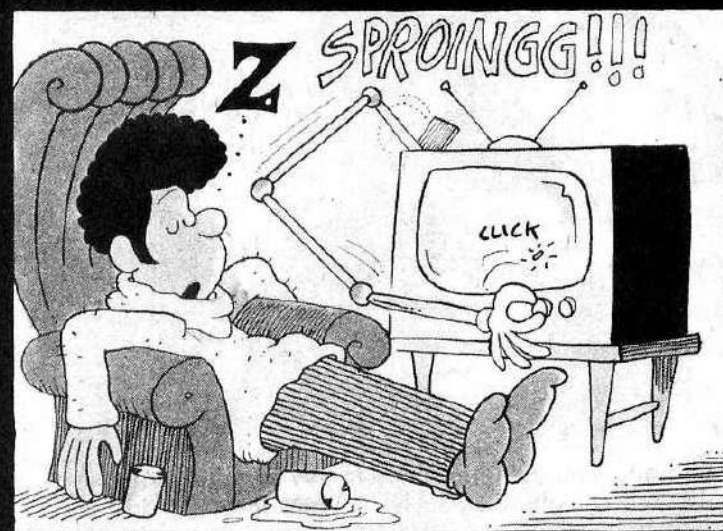

An ejection sofa that catapults visitors who don't know when to leave your house.

A vacuum cleaner with a garbage disposal inside instead of a bag so it never has to be emptied.

A clock that runs fast on weekdays and school days and slow on weekends and holidays.

A television set that shuts itself off as soon as you fall asleep while watching the late movie.

Special nail polish that makes toenails fall off when they get too long so you don't have to clip them.

A bed with attachments that wash and shave your face in the morning so you can sleep ten minutes longer.

IT'S BOUND TO HAPPEN!

THE MAHARESHI IS A SECTS SYMBOL

You finally get your boyfriend to buy you that expensive necklace of cultured pearls . . . and the next day you read about the police discovering a rash of imitation zircons!

You rent a new luxury convertible to go out riding with your beautiful new secretary . . . and when you stop at a red light you'll see your wife crossing the street!

You receive that long-awaited $5000 royalty check on your new book . . . and it comes the exact moment your wife asks you to buy her a new $5000 mink coat!

You finally realize your heart's ambition, that of opening up a quarter car wash . . . and you go broke because nobody wants to have only a quarter of their car washed!

You have a group insurance policy which covers the sickness you have . . . and you find out that it's no good unless the entire group gets sick!

You succeed in having your father promise to get you that new car for your birthday . . . and it's moments before he gets a look at your school report card!

You go down to City Hall for your driver's license and accidentally get in the wrong line . . . and you wind up married to a Toyota!

You hear the pilot in the airplane you're flying say that the plane has just hit a simple air pocket and there's nothing to be alarmed about . . . and you find out it's a recorded message!

Your psychiatrist finally uncovers your problem, that you have a very bad suicide-complex . . . and from then on he makes you pay in advance!

You have a new electronic pacemaker successfully installed in your heart . . . and every time you sneeze the garage door will open!

You go to a Sunday double-header at the ball park and try to take a picture of the 60,000 fans in the grandstand . . . and it won't come out because somebody moves!

IF YOU THINK THERE'S TOO MUCH VIOLENCE ON T.V. NOW, YOU WON'T BE SEEING MUCH LESS IN THE FUTURE BECAUSE PEOPLE LOVE IT! IN FACT, IT JUST MAY SPREAD TO OTHER FORMS OF ENTERTAINMENT...SOMETHING PEOPLE CAN ACTUALLY TAKE PART IN! IF THIS HAPPENS, WE COULD END UP SEEING THINGS LIKE....

THE BOARD: Shows a symbolic map of New York City...Central Park surrounded by streets and buildings. All divided into squares, like chessboard.

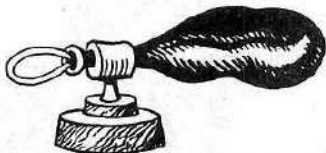

THE PLAYERS:

Game is played by three people, who choose roles. One will be the 'assailant', one will be the 'VICTIM', and one will be the 'cop'. Persons interested in justice and fair play are advised not to become the 'cop'!

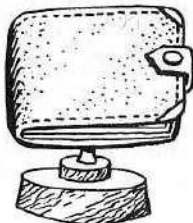

Players can break down these roles even further. For example, 'assailants' may call themselves 'muggers', 'hit men', or 'tax collectors'. 'Victims' may be 'little old ladies', 'stoolies', or 'marathon men'. 'Cops' can disguise themselves as anyone...even law-abiding citizens!

PLAYING PIECES:

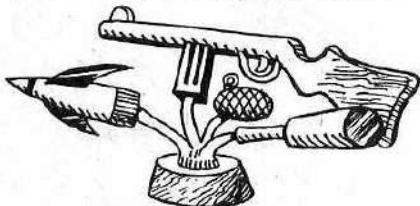

The assailant uses the blackjack...

The victim uses the wallet (or handbag if female)---

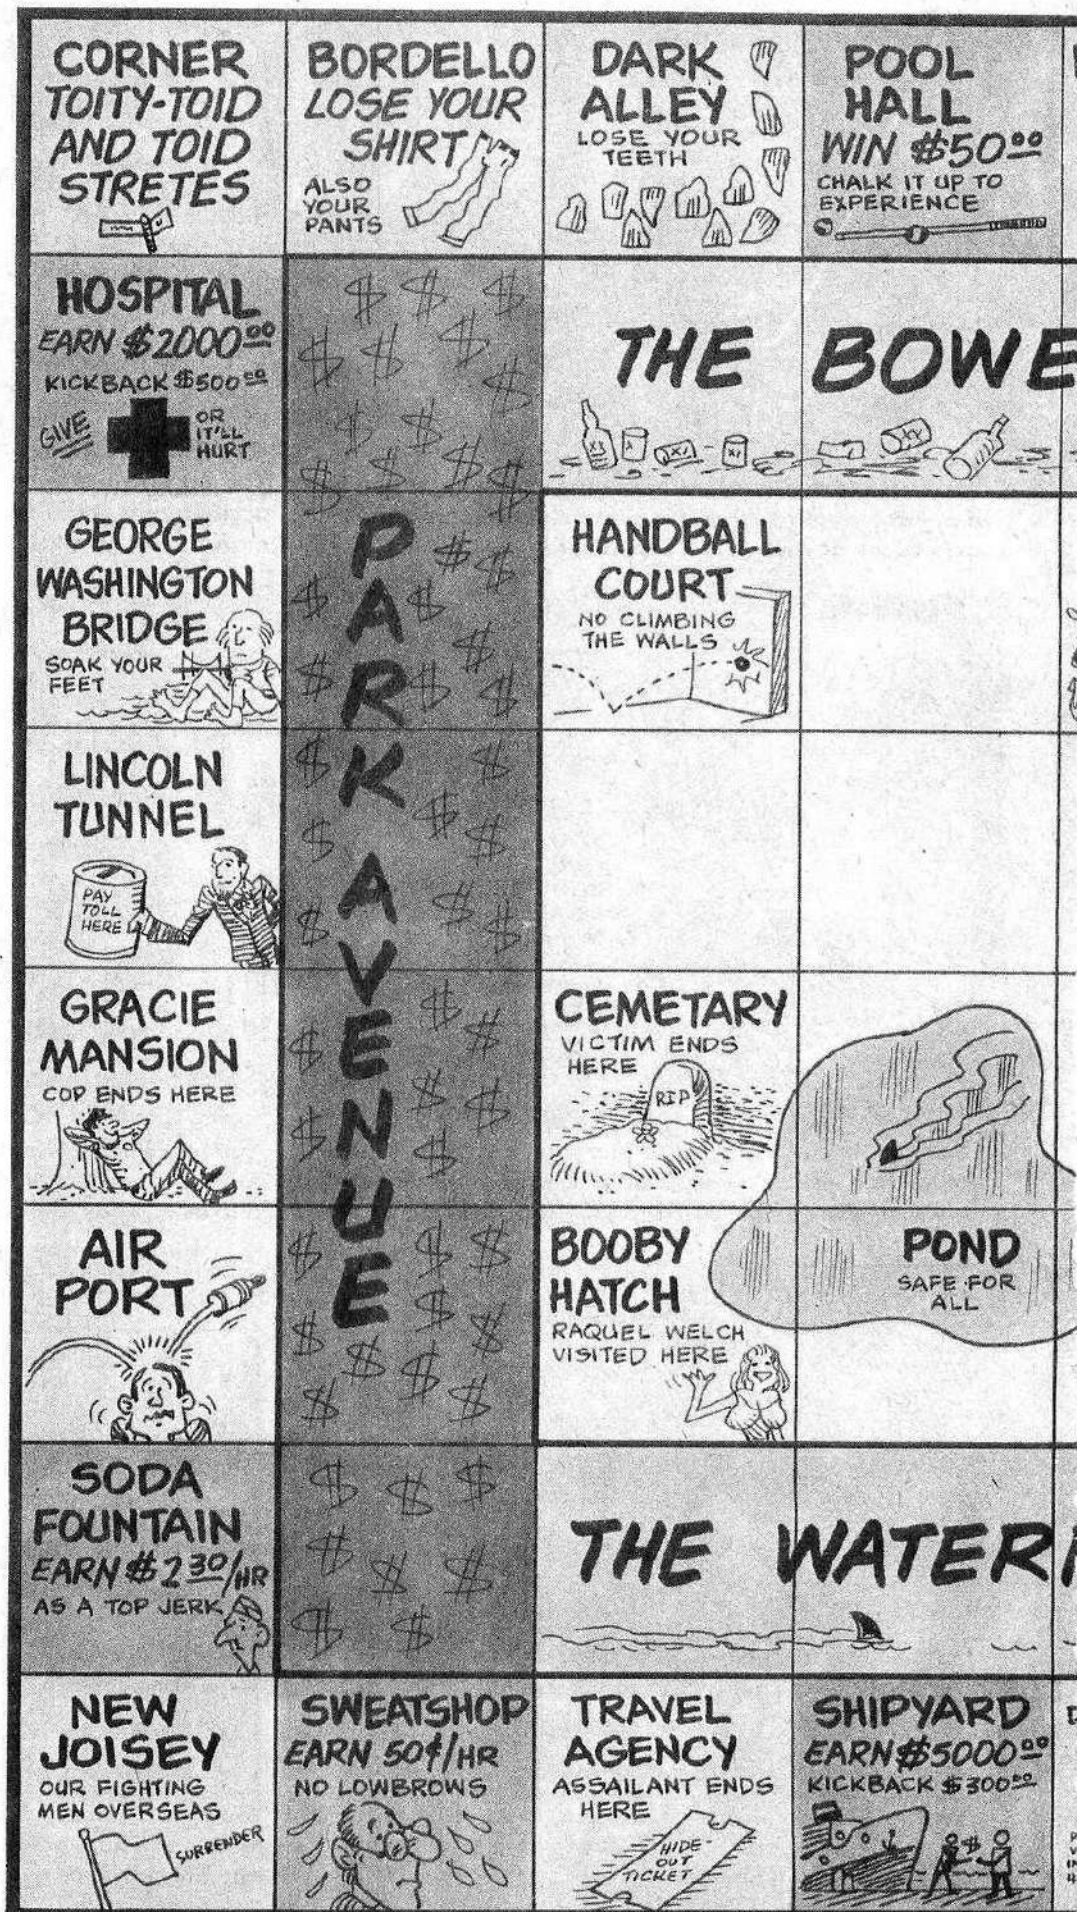

The cop uses the mace, submachine gun, bazooka and missile. All at once!

CASH: (see rules on right.)

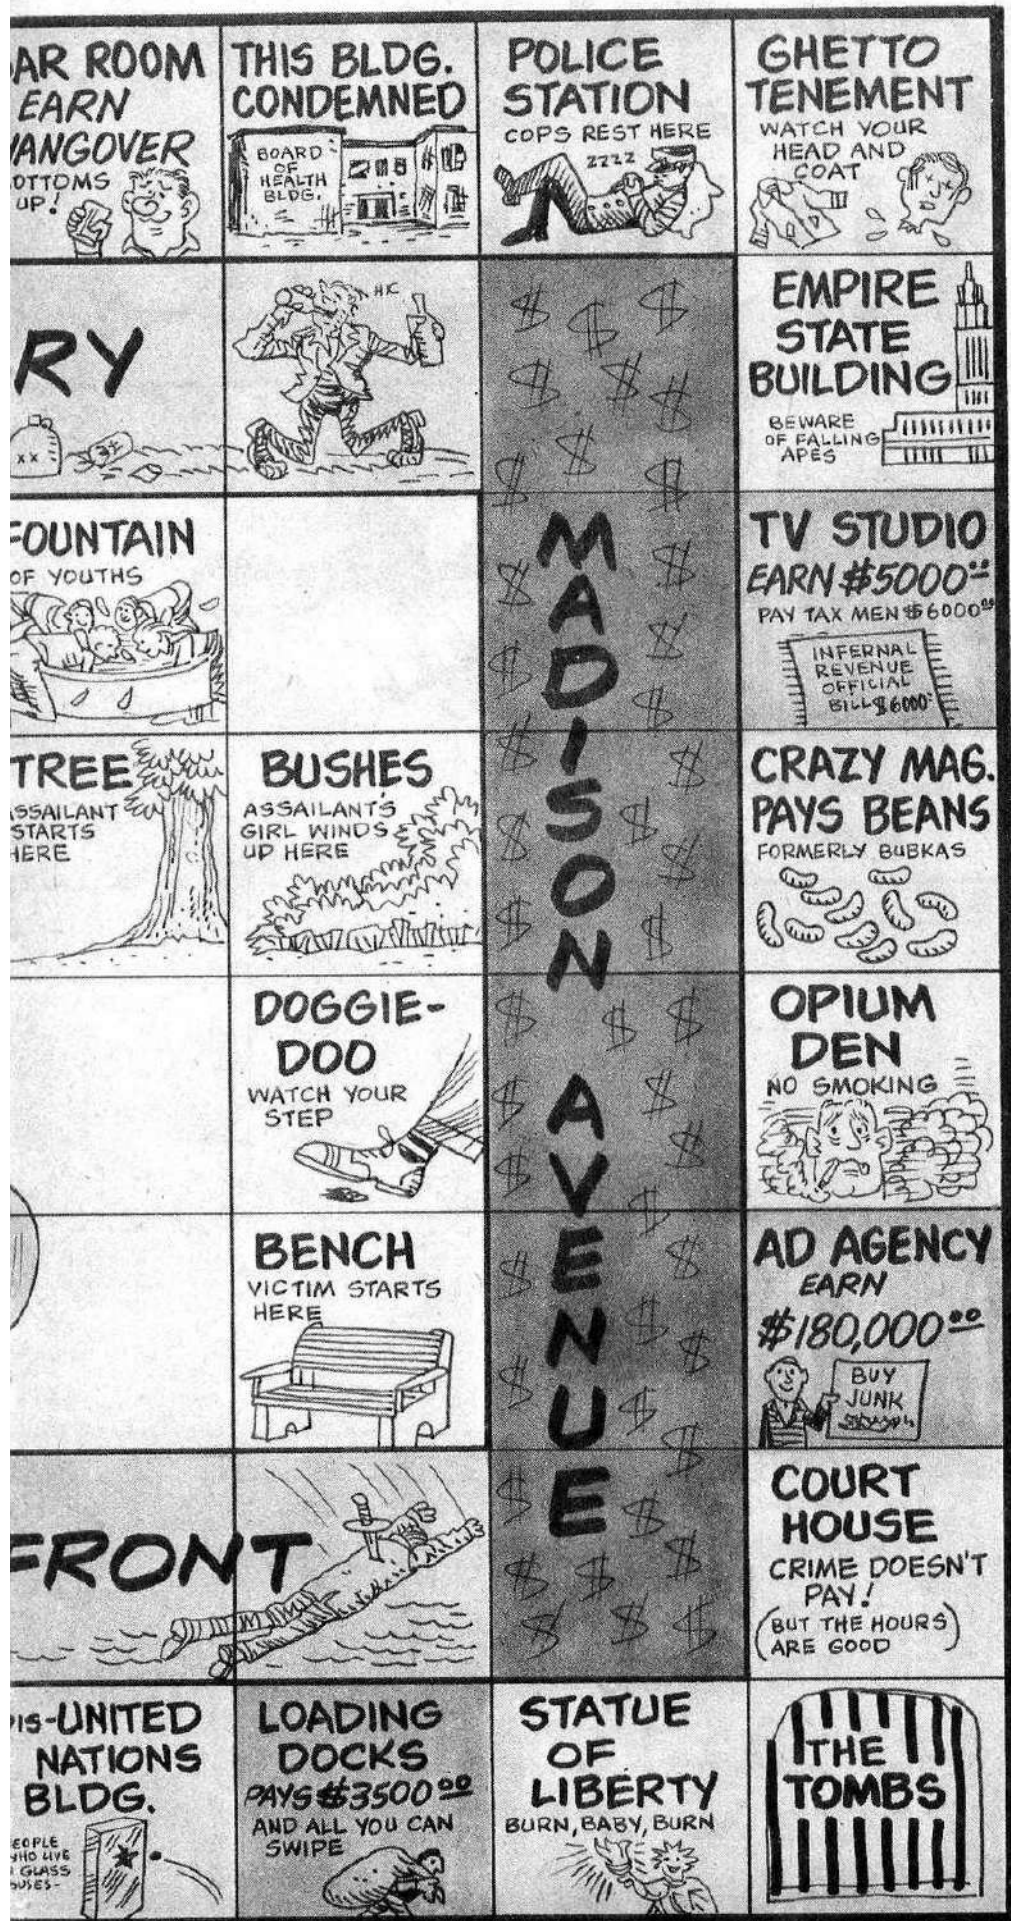

DICE: Only one die used. Always loaded!

Y'S VIOLENCE GAME

Writer: Roger Francis

Artist: Tony Tallarico

RULES OF PLAY:

- 1) Players take turns, the nastiest (probably the cop) going first. Each player rolls the die, and may move that number of squares in any direction, with the following in mind:
- 2) The assailant is always attempting to land on the same square as the victim. When he does, he gets up and beats victim over noggin with black-jack. Then he takes whatever cash victim has 'earned'. (See rule 4)
- 3) The cop is always attempting to land on the same square as the assailant. When he does, assailant offers him a 'cut' of the stolen money. If accepted, cop moves in opposite direction. (NOTE: Cop must also do his best to avoid victim.)
- 4) The victim is always attempting to land on the 'business' squares to 'earn' amount shown, and as assailant closes in, attempts to land on same square as cop. If he does, cop mistakes him for radical and uses mace, bazooka, or missile. Whatever seems appropriate.
- 5) If all three happen to land on same square at once, 'assailant' must go to 'prison' (shown at lower right on board) and pass up a turn. This will only amount to a term of several minutes. Talk about realism!
- 6) Game ends when victim finally passes out from wounds received. At this time, cop and assailant count their cash, and wealthiest wins!

HAVE FUN!!!

NOTE: You may wonder who is dumb enough to play the 'victim'. Many people are. The ones who leave their doors unlocked, carry large amounts of cash, or smoke cigarettes!

What's the big music sensation across the nation? Disco!...Now we've got some dances you've never even heard of. Lessons start right now - so put on your platform shoes and turn up that radio...Arthur Murray, eat your heart out--because here's...

CRAZY'S STEP BY STEP DISCO LESSONS

Writer: Joe Thadummi

Artist: Vic Martin

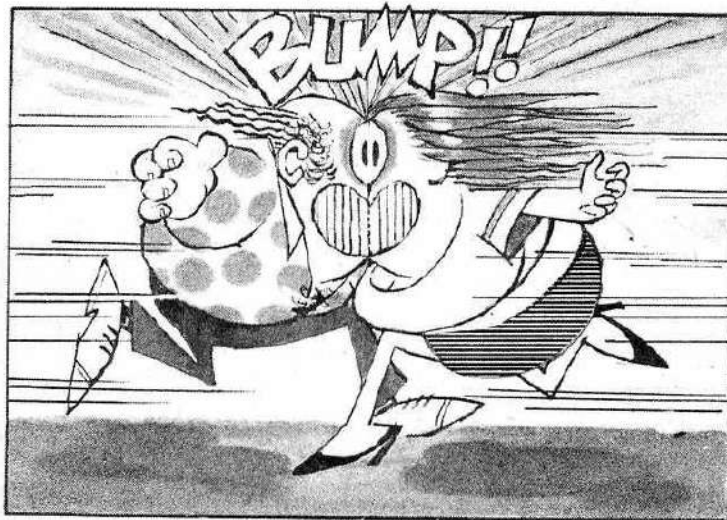

LESSON 1 THE CRAZY HUSTLE

INSTRUCTIONS:

Couple starts at opposite ends of the disco floor and Hustles towards each other, being careful not to run over other disco dancers.

LESSON 2 THE CRAZY BLIMP

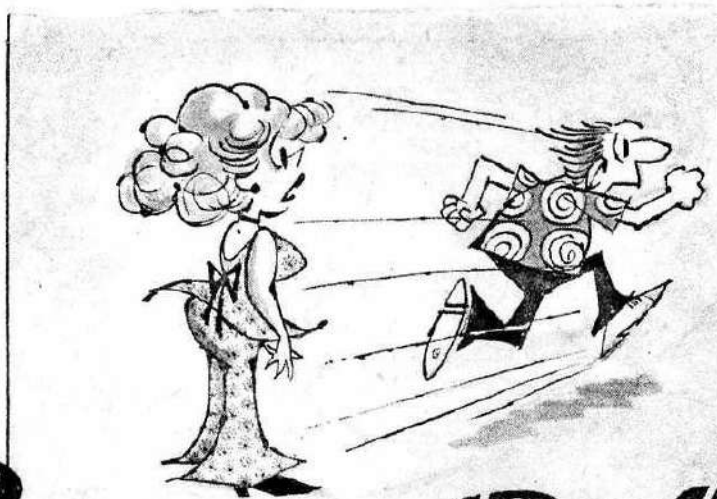

Couple forgets to stop Hustling, and meets in the center of the dance floor, head-on.

LESSON 3 THE LOOSE MARBLES

This dance is a natural, especially after having just done the Crazy Hustle and the Crazy Bump.

LESSON 4 THE GOTTA GO

This dance occurs when one member of the couple suddenly remembers he left his car lights on after parking.

LESSON 5 THE COVER UP

Couple dances with hands over ears in order to avoid listening to loud disco music from band.

LESSON 6 THE REVERSE COVER UP

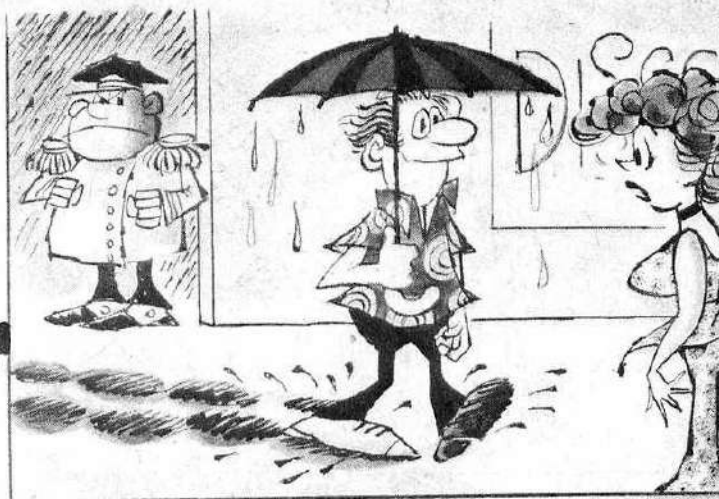

Slightly harder than the regular Cover Up, this is for double-jointed dancers only, and you can't cover up your ears.

LESSON 7 THE DOG

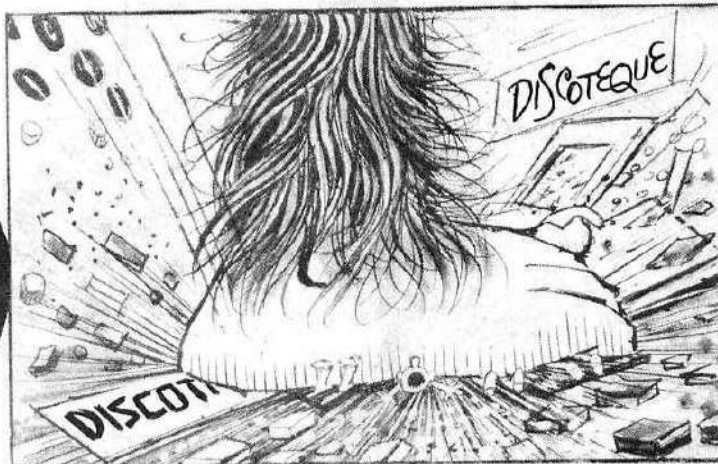

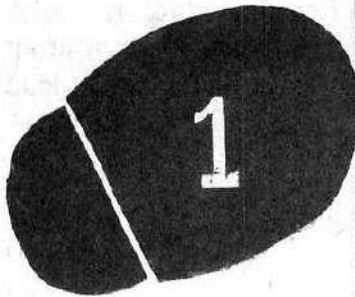

Girl has no offers (except from local dog catcher) and is forced to dance solo.

LESSON 8 THE SLOB

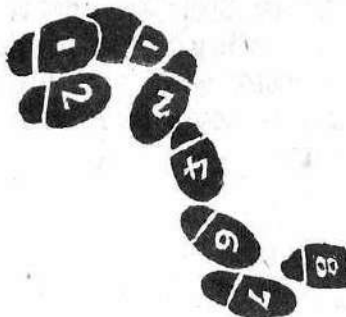

Clod forgot to wipe feet before returning to the dance floor in this one.

LESSON 9 THE BIG FOOT

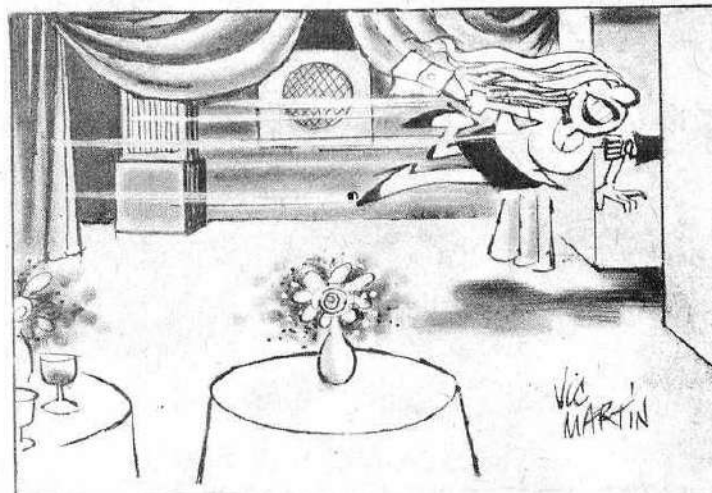

This is what happens when King Kong tries to do one of these disco numbers. Not recommended for anyone under 60' tall.

LESSON 10 THE NERD

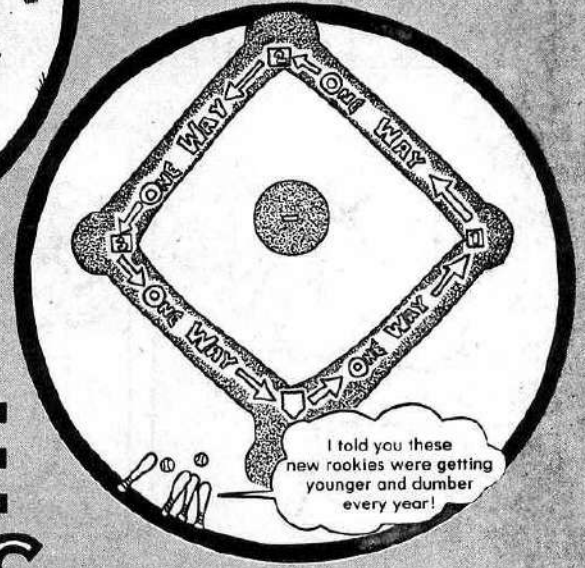

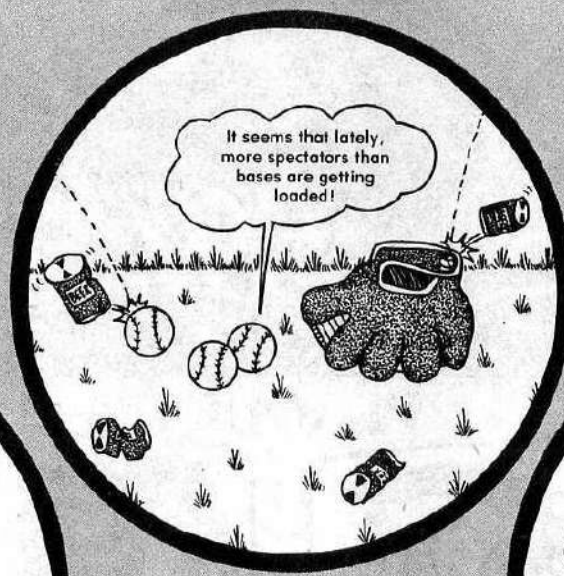

Male partner must have two left feet and must plant one of them on his partner's right foot by mistake.

LESSON 11 THE SPLIT

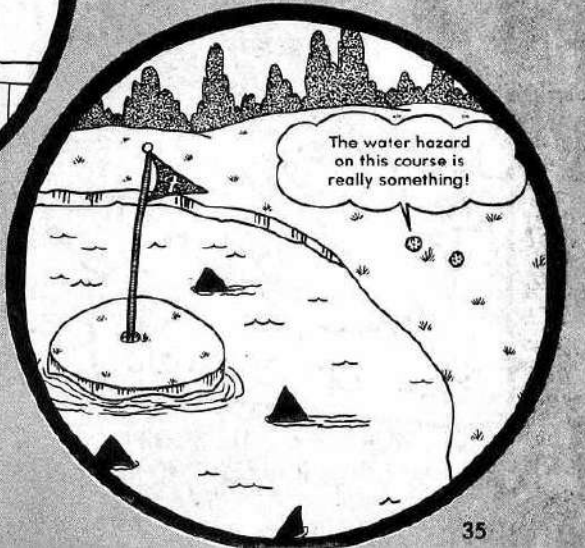

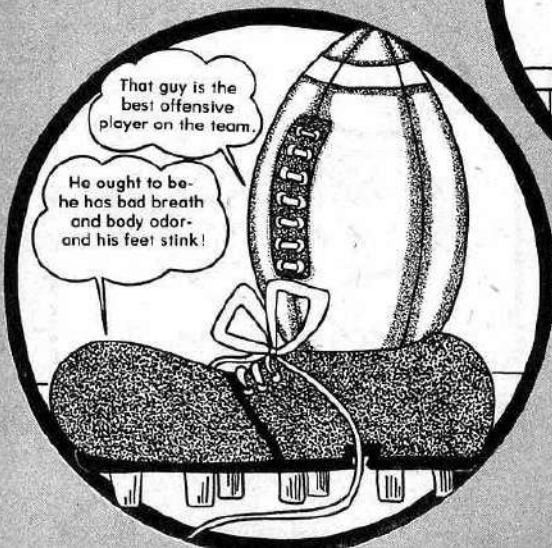

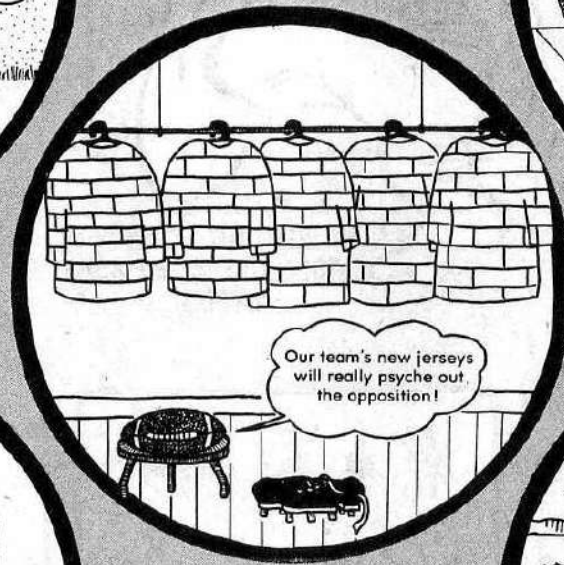

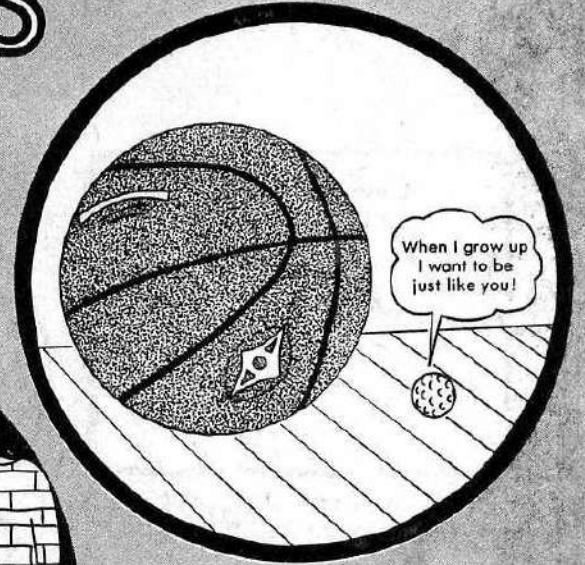

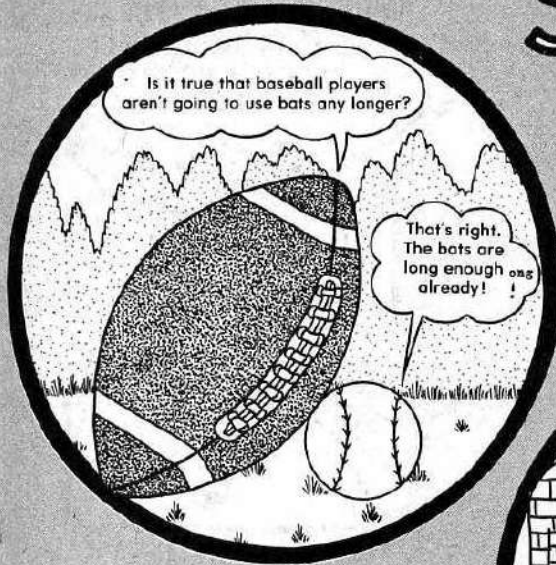

Entire disco crowd gives up trying to follow these idiotic footsteps and "splits" to the Pizza Parlor next door.

THE WOLFMAN

This fellow was one great big loon.
For whenever there was a full moon.
He got covered with hair
And he'd growl and he'd glare;
And at hydrants and trees he would swoon!

FRANKENSTEIN'S MONSTER

A scientist once went too far.
He created a thing most bizarre.
He used pieces from dead men.
Gave life to his monster, then
Boris Karloff became a big star!

GODZILLA

This dragon was just like an earthquake;
For by walking he made all the land shake.
Through cities and brier,
With radioactive fire,
He flattened Japan like a pancake!

NEW YORK, N.Y....A noted TV-hater claims he now has a five-foot screen in his living room. He keeps it right in front of his set!

WILMINGTON, DEL....A local obstetrician reportedly put himself through medical school by working in the post office here. Trouble is, it now takes him three months to deliver a baby!

CINCINNATI, OHIO...Phone service is getting worse every day. A survey has shown that it now takes twice as long just to get a wrong number.

HOLLYWOOD, CAL...Not only are some of the recent films bigger than life—they are ten times dirtier than life. One movie just released is so sick that they gave it a rating of Rx.

PLAINS, GA....Billy Carter is doing his best to conserve energy these days. He flies without a plane. Incidentally, there's a new fortune teller in Plains who doesn't use tea leaves. She reads from a bowl of grits.

DETROIT, MICH....A fellow hereabouts invented a car that gives 500 miles to a gallon. Unfortunately, you only get 200 miles to the car!

MOBILE, ALA...A recent poll conducted shows that 80 percent of the men cheat in America. The other 20 percent cheat someplace else.

UGANDA, AFRICA...Everybody keeps putting down Idi Amin but his country must have the best doctors in the world. Ever hear of a Ugandan dying of old age? And speaking of Uganda, you should see the crowd when Idi Amin speaks. Such enthusiasm. Why, people hang on his every word!

WASHINGTON, D.C....Nixon said he covered up to shield his associates who shared the courage of their convictions. Seems however, that he got the courage and they got the convictions.

UPI EXCLUSIVE: Idi Amin has just eaten Andrew Young!

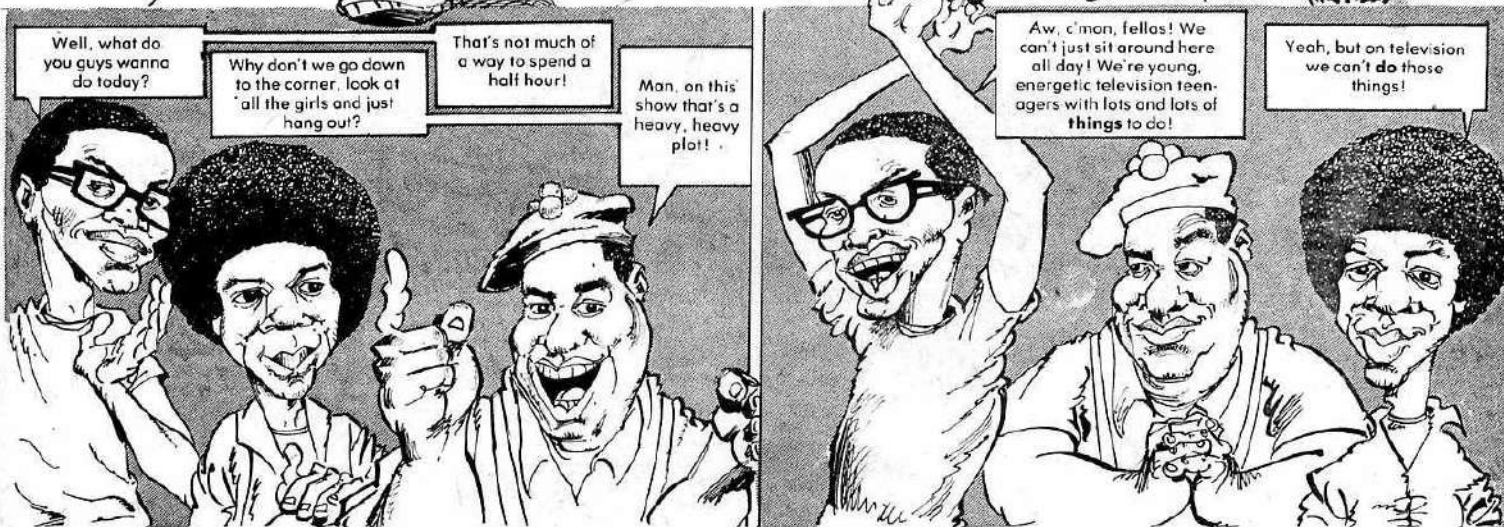

LONDON, ENGLAND...Lloyds of London has reported that Farrah Fawcett-Majors has insured her chest for $1 million dollars. And that's just against theft!

TV SATIRE:

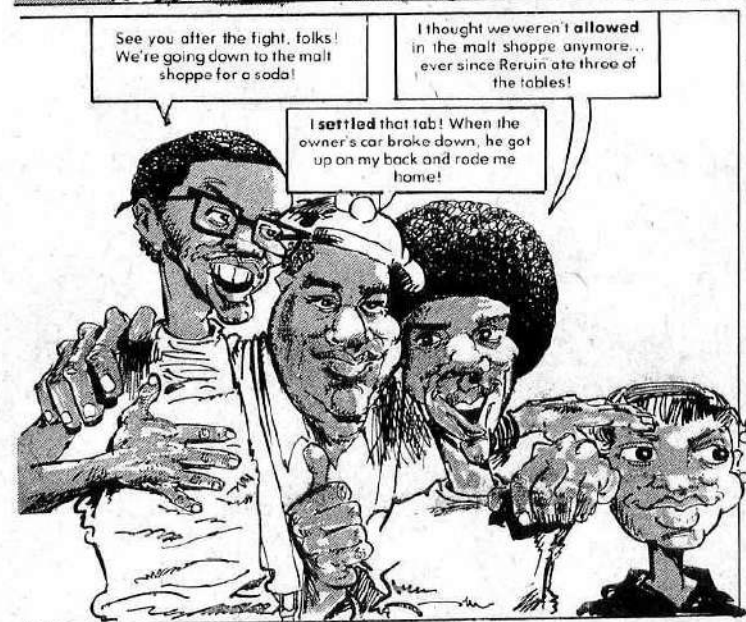

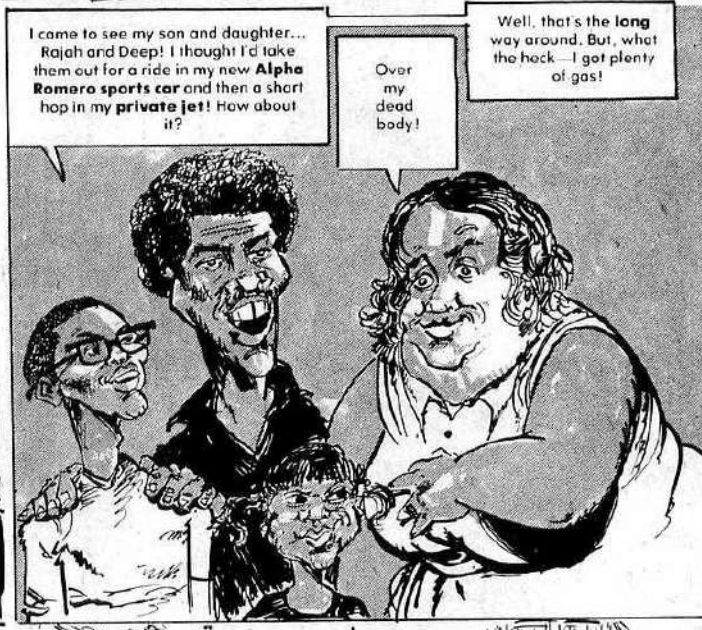

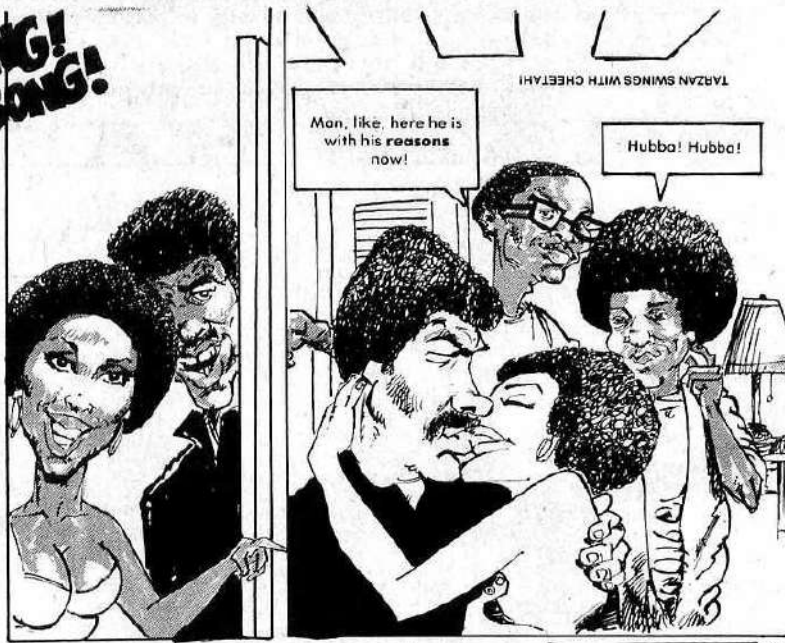

Today's television viewer is subject to an untold number of situation comedies each and every week...and they're all pretty much the same: BAD! Try as they will, television producers have failed to year after year to come up with anything new. One producer though, thought he had the answer...an all-black series that portrayed blacks as they REALLY are today. Trouble is, this show only depicts the minority MIDDLE-CLASS BLACK. Nowhere do we find any mention of the WAATS-TYPE GHETTO BLACK. In fact, just once we would like to see a real down-to-earth...
